When war with England was declared that same year, John remained at home with his new wife; but later in the war, volunteered in a rifle company, serving a total of fifty-four days. For this service, he received two separate land warrants. When Congress finally passed an act to pension War of 1812 veterans early in 1871, John applied but died later that same year. Had he lived he would have learned his application was rejected as he had not served the required sixty days.

John's earliest recorded presence in Lewis County dates to September 26, 1840, when he purchased 121 acres of land from James and Sarah Anderson.

John died in Upshur County WV after 1870. He was listed in the 1870 Upshur County census in the household of his daughter, Ann. Mary (Wilson) Armstrong died between 1860 and 22 March 1869.
